Bengal Knights Cricket Club

- Formed in early 2022
- Consists of players mostly from East Lansing and Novi/Wixom area.
- We have members from Bengal Spartans (2019 MB Cup Champs), Michigan Rebels etc.
- We play mostly in FCC (Farmington Cricket Club) cricket tournaments and Lansing Cricket Leagues.
- Everyone in our team is of Bangladeshi Origin.
- Group was initiated by Suvro Sudip with generous help of Proteek Chandan Roy & Manoj Ghosh (MSU Spartans).

Inspiration for this tournament

- It is a one-of-a-kind single day tournament for Spring
- Celebrating Noboborsho and Cricket together
- Geared towards Bangladeshi residents of Michigan
- Right start to a fantastic cricket that Michigan summer offers
- Great chance for the community to come together and have a fun cricket centric day

We may make mistakes as this is the first time, we are organizing this, but our goal is to do it better next year around.

Organizing Committee

- Nafis Quraishi (New Team Engagement, Sponsorship)
- Proteek Chandan Roy (Materials Procurement, Series format)
- Omar Maruf (New Team Engagement, Cricket Rules)
- Manoj Ghosh (Lansing Liaison, Social Media & Series format)

- Powerplay - 1st two overs
  - Max two players can field outside the circle during powerplay
  - Max four players can field outside the circle after powerplay
- 9 a side, 10 max roster declared before toss for each match
  - If extra player needs to be added, they will need to pay $20 per player since we need to provide lunch
  - Each game will still have a roster consisting of 9 players and 1 substitute player for a total of 10 players
    - 9 players can bat, 9 players can bowl, 9 players can field
    - Substitute player must be present at the beginning of the match to be allowed in the roster
    - If the sub player wants to bowl, he must be on the field by the end of the fifth over
- Must have wicket keeper
- Each team must provide two umpires
- Each team is encouraged to bring at least one set of wooden spring stumps with bails

Details of the tournament

- Field Set Up
  - 180 feet from the center of the pitch
  - 60 yards (not 65)

Details of the tournament

- Format:
  - Run restrictions:
    - Off-side has 1 run and 2 run declarations due to it being a baseball field
      - 1 run if the ball goes over the larger fence
      - 2 runs if the ball goes over the smaller fence/no fence area
  - No LBW will be given
  - No LB/Bye runs can be taken – no overthrow runs are allowed
  - No declared runs behind the wicket
    - Regular runs are fine within boundary
  - If the ball goes out of the baseball field behind the wicket keeper,
    - Then declared one run will be given
    - Striking batter will need to switch with non strike batter

Details of the tournament

- More details on player addition

- Official Scoring App for the tournament will be Cric Clubs
- Players must be added to the excel sheet by Sunday April 22
- After Sunday, players can only be replaced
- For extreme circumstances, committee can be contacted to make changes
- Players are excluded from MichCA First Divisions/FCC Champions Group last 3 years in this tournament due to this being an amateur friendly celebration of cricket and Bangla noboborsho
- No major/minor league professional cricket players are allowed
- Rule is excluded for known community affiliated players
- Verification through Cric Clubs - Review. We will also look into FCC Points List.
- So far teams list complies and no one is excluded to play

Details of the tournament

- Additional Pointers

- Official Scoring App for the tournament will be CricClubs
- Team Umpires and Captains must be able to log into CricClubs and will be responsible for scoring during games
- Please wear your colorful jerseys to represent your team
- No Whites/Jeans allowed

Details of the tournament

- Chucking

- We are a community, and we are playing for fun, so I encourage everyone to maintain the fun atmosphere in the tournament
- If there is chucking involved, here are the rules pertaining to it:
  - Main umpire or leg umpire CANNOT raise question of chucking
  - Only Striking Batter can complain to umpire about bowler chucking
  - Then Leg Umpire and Main Umpire will watch the next ball
    - If the bowler is determined to be chucking by both umpires,
      - Then the bowler will be given a verbal warning
      - Then the next ball, if chucked, can be declared no-ball (Umpire's call)
