Match Rules

The Laws of Cricket apply, except:

Games are played between two teams of Six/Seven players, and each game consists of a maximum of Six six-ball overs bowled by each side (eight-ball overs in the final match)

- Each member of the fielding side bowls one over, with the exception of the wicket-keeper.
- Wides and no-balls count as two runs.

If five wickets fall before 6 overs are completed, the last remaining batsman bats on with the fifth batsman acting as a runner. He always takes strike. The innings is complete when the sixth wicket falls.

- Batsmen retire not out on reaching 25 runs. A retired batsman can return to the crease after lower-order batsmen either retire or are out.
- A tournament points system awards two points for each match won.
